Lyrics:

The cup of sorrow overflows...
Nothing shows, no nothing glows,
But my soul is all at sea...
The night has had its way with me...

This game is growing rather grim...
And some of us must sink or swim
But I'll play the sailor brave...
From the cradle to my grave...

'Cause you're the gold at the end of my rainbow,
The ghost with the silver smile...
You're the gold at the end of my rainbow...
Oh, won't you stay with me,
Please won't you stay with me,
Oh, won't you stay with me awhile...

Our enemies are at the gate...
Well armed with jealousy and hate...
But my sword is in my hand
And I will fight at your command...

The storm is raging in my head...
The things I've done,
The words I've said...
Never change your skies to grey...
For I will chase the clouds away,

'Cause you're the gold at the end of my rainbow,
The ghost with the silver smile...
You're the gold at the end of my rainbow...
Oh, won't you stay with me,
Please won't you stay with me,
Oh, won't you stay with me awhile...

Words and music by Bill Nelson.
